Our department is also a home to two research chairs – Chair in Family Entrepreneurship and Society and Chair in Finance for Innovation.

The salary is negotiable and commensurate with potential and experience. There are a number of benefits attached to the contract including an individual research or pedagogical budget, the possibility to apply for additional internal funding opportunities, performance-based bonuses, and family medical coverage.

Audencia is triple accredited (AACSB, EQUIS and AMBA) and one of the leading European and French business schools. The school offers a wide range of programs including MS Grande Ecole, MScs, MBA, Executive MBA, European Master in Management, Doctorate and Executive Education Programmes, with 149 core faculty members from 32 countries. The school is very dynamic, it has grown significantly in the most recent years and will continue to do so with new positions opening in the future. Audencia fosters both high-quality research and high-quality pedagogy and has a workload model that allows faculty to place emphasis on either of the two.

The school has campuses in France and abroad. This position is mainly for the Nantes campus and some involvement in La Roche s/ Yon Campus (located 1 hour from Nantes). Nantes is just 2 hours away from Paris by train, serviced by an international airport. The eclecticism of its landscapes and architecture, its dynamism and the diversity of its cultural events, along with the quality of the environment which won it the label of European Green Capital, regularly places Nantes at the top of the best cities to live in. In addition to its pleasant environment (vineyards, royal castles, rivers, the sandy Atlantic coast...), the city also boasts a rich economic and industrial identity. As the 6th largest city in France, the metropolitan region of Nantes is number two in the country in terms of job growth. As of 2021, there are more than 55 803 companies housed in the city.
