

REVIEW OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES AUTHORS GUIDELINES

The Revue de l'Entrepreneuriat / Review of Entrepreneurship is an international bilingual journal. The articles are published in two languages (French and English). To increase the visibility of authors published in the Revue de l'Entrepreneuriat / Review of Entrepreneurship we develop the submission of articles in English. For this, we ask authors whose articles are accepted for publication in French to translate them into English. The authors finance the fees related to the copy-editing to ensure the quality of the English. Articles can be submitted directly in English.

The submission of an article to « Revue de l'Entrepreneuriat » includes two documents to be submitted:

- The full text (made completely anonymous)
- Contact information document that includes the following:

To submit their article to the Revue de l'Entrepreneuriat, authors should strictly respect the following recommendations:

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE MAIN DOCUMENT:

- The full text of the submitted article should be in Word version and is made completely anonymous. It includes an abstract in French of 100 words maximum and 5 keywords (in Times New Roman body 12) and an abstract in English of 100 words and 5 keywords (in Times New Roman body 12).
- Authors ensure that they cannot be identified and/or information about authors does not appear in the MAIN DOCUMENT.
- The texts are typed in Times New Roman font 12 with a 1.5 line spacing and 2.5 cm margins (top, bottom, right and left) in A4 format only.
- Paragraphs are justified on both sides. The document is paginated (in the center of the footer).
- The rare footnotes are in Times New Roman font 10; they are numbered.
- The article must not exceed 40 pages, including figures, tables, appendices and bibliography
- Tables, graphs or diagrams must be in black colour on a white background; they are numbered independently in the title or subtitle in which they are inserted. Each table (or figure) is preceded by a short title and the source if it is borrowed.
- The titles and subtitles are numbered numerically: 1 then 1.1, 1.1.1 for the subtitles etc. They are in bold type. A line break precedes and follows each title or subtitle. Each title or subtitle is announced. Thus, there cannot be a title 2.1 directly following a title 2 without a few lines being inserted for the purposes of presentation and structuring of the section.

- The introduction and the conclusion are not numbered. They are in bold type.

- Bibliographic references located in the text include, in brackets, the name of all the authors at the time of the first citation (and not only that of the first author when the reference is a collective work or a collective coordination), as well as the year of the publication and, possibly, the page cited in the following form: (Albert, 1991: 351). From the second citation, the text refers to the name of the first author followed by « et al., ». When the citation has two authors, the two cited authors are separated by « and ». The use of the & sign is not allowed.

CONTACT INFORMATION DOCUMENT THAT INCLUDES THE FOLLOWINGS:

- Title of the article
- Names the author(s)
- Function (grade) and affiliations of the author(s)
- Postal addresses
- Authors' e-mail addresses
- An abstract of no more than 100 words (in French and English)
- A maximum of 5 key words indicating content of the article

GUIDELINES FOR THE ABSTRACT

A concise and factual abstract is required. The abstract should concisely indicate the gap in the literature (what?), why it is important that the gap be filled (why?), and how the current paper does so (including theoretical lens and/or research method) (how?). The abstract should state briefly the purpose of the research, the principal results and major contributions, theoretical and managerial. References should be avoided as uncommon abbreviations.

GUIDELINES FOR BIBLIOGRAPHICAL REFERENCES

- Bibliographic references located in the text include, in brackets, the name of all the authors at the time of the first citation (and not only that of the first author when the reference is a collective work or a collective coordination), as well as the year of the publication and, possibly, the page cited in the following form: (Albert, 1991: 351). From the second citation, the text refers to the name of the first author followed by « et al., ». When the citation has two authors, the two cited authors are separated by « and ».

- The bibliography, listed in alphabetical order, is located at the end of the document; written in Times New Roman police 12.

> DESK REJECT

Submissions considered inappropriate with the editorial line of the journal, insufficient development of the article considered or not meeting the formalization criteria of a scientific article (guidelines of the journal) are returned to the authors. without formally entering the evaluation process and are rejected. The rejection decision at this stage is not reversible.

> DECISIONS OF PUBLICATION

The final selection of articles admitted for publication is made by the editors in coordination with the associate editors and on the recommendation of the reviewers after an anonymous review process using at least two different reviewers. The recommendations and content of the evaluations are available to the authors. For each article submitted, the editors send a letter of response to the authors as well as the reports of each reviewer.

> FORMATTING INSTRUCTIONS ONCE THE TEXT IS ACCEPTED FOR PUBLICATION:

When authors receive the editorial decision for publication, they must return the article formatted for digital publication to the editors and the editorial secretary by email at the addresses below. The authors' presentations, the abstracts in French and in English, and the main text are gathered in a single document (while conforming to the formatting guidelines explained above).
